Alexander Koesters

Alexander John Bernard Henry Koesters was born May 26, 1849 in Bremen, Oldenburg Germany. Alexander's parents and family were Protestants. He converted to Catholicism and attended a European Minor Seminary.

After coming to America, he attended St. Meinrad Seminary at St. Meinrad, IN. He was ordained September 6, 1874 at St. John's Church in Indianapolis. Bishop Maurice de St. Palais ordained Alexander. Fr. Koesters said his first Mass at St. Nicholas Church in St. Nicholas.

In November 1876, at the age of 27 years, Fr. Koesters became the first resident pastor of St. Joseph Church in Princeton. St. Bernard Church, Snake Run (Obertsville), became a mission. Fr. Koesters was at Princeton from 1874 until July of 1877.

History tells us that Fr. Koesters was a tall, powerful man and was born a humorist. "He had a wonderful memory and was especially talented and could have been a famous literary man if he had sufficient patience, diligence, and perseverance." -Fr. Joseph Thie

Fr. Koesters retired from pastoral ministry at the age of 57. He died July 19, 1911 in New Albany, at the age of 62. He is buried at St. Mary Cemetery in New Albany.

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Active and contemplative. At work and at rest. These are dynamics we all face in our lives, and if we're honest, we might not always balance perfectly! In this Sunday's Gospel, our daily tensions play out in two sisters. Mary "sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak." Martha, on the other hand, is "burdened with much serving." This, as it turns out, is not necessarily "the better part."

All of us reading this have some sort of labor we engage in. We have different trades or careers. We have responsibilities as family members, some of which may take up most of our time. In the time of Scripture, showing hospitality to guests was one of the most important values in society. Our work is important. Jesus himself spent decades as a carpenter. So what's the problem with Martha? Martha is burdened, anxious, and worried. Not only that, but she resents her sister's choice. "Tell her to help me," she demands of Jesus.

How easy it is to get very busy doing good things. We need to provide for our families and plan for retirement. We need to make sure children are clothed, fed, and educated. Our committees, ministries, and sports schedules need to stay on track. However, without a balance of work with rest, without contemplation in the midst of our action, we will miss the point. While many parts are required for our life in the world to function, the better part is our relationship with God. This week, make time in your busy schedule to sit at Jesus' feet. Maybe this is 20 minutes with Scripture, participating in a daily Mass, or a quiet walk alone in the park. Receive what Christ wants to speak to you.

We encourage our parishioners to patronize our sponsors. It is through their generosity that our weekly bulletin comes to you at no cost to the church. Our sponsor this week is:

UEBELHOR & SONS INC

Thank you to all the businesses who sponsor our bulletin.
