Many Sacrifices Have Added Value To Catholic Schools

Preparing for Catholic School's week, I reflected on several sacrifices that were made by my own family. They made certain that my parents, my sisters and I would have the benefit of a Catholic Education. While growing up, my parents informed me of the sacrifices my grandparents made to send them to Catholic Schools. My Grandma Kaiser collected and sold fresh eggs to pay for the tuition for my dad. My Grandma Cardinal was a waitress, and her tips funded the tuition and uniform expense for my Mom to attend St. Rose Academy. My parents moved 17 miles closer to Vincennes so that my sisters and I could attend the Catholic schools. The sacrifices did not stop there. During the 1980s, the Farm Crisis hit the Midwest. I watched many farmers lose everything. Seeing the sad parade of farm equipment going to be auctioned off became a common sight. My parents never once complained in front of my sisters and me. The money would come from somewhere. I am sure many prayers were said late at night as we slept and they couldn't.

United through the years priests and religious sisters worked diligently to ensure a Catholic Education was available to all. For many decades now, the laity have taught in our schools. Many of them make sacrifices as well. Occasionally I hear of them paying for supplies out of their own pocket. My sister is a Catholic school teacher, and I have learned over the years that it is a common practice. Our teachers have a real passion to teach and minister to the children. They are proud to be a part of the St. Joseph Catholic School Staff. My heart swells with compassion as I watch those in the School Office tenderly care for the injured or sick students. They too make sacrifices, setting aside the task they are working on, to attend to the kids. The students are our priority.

When asked what type of parish I would like to serve, I never hesitated. "I want one with a school!" A Catholic School adds value to a Parish. There is another dynamic in a parish that has a school. The Parishioners understand, sacrifices MUST be made and through the years YOU all have made them abundantly. As we celebrate Catholic School's week, I offer my deep gratitude to all the sacrifices YOU have made for Catholic Education. My prayers this week will focus on our students, parents, teachers, staff and parishioners of the past, present and future that have the vision and courage to make the sacrifice.

Catholic schools are an A+ for America. The fact is that they add a great value to our Country and local community. Not only do the Catholic Schools have outstanding academic standards and high graduation rates, they also promote service along with solid Catholic morals.

St. Joseph Catholic School makes numerous contributions to our community each day. The students live out the principle to respect all life, as they live the motto of Education, Tradition and Family. We, the local community, and the Diocese are proud of St. Joseph Catholic School. Our community will reap the benefit of the sacrifices made as the students mature. The well-rounded faith filled education will benefit our community as they serve in the areas of business, government, healthcare, education, and ministry within the Church. God Bless our Catholic Schools!

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Gary

HS "Pal"entines Night

Whether you have a true love or just a close "pal"/friend this Valentine Night event is for you! Beginning at 5:30 on Friday, Feb. 4 at Sts P&P (TBD in youth room or gym), we'll learn more about true love and the different types of love that all point back to our Heavenly Father (for "God is love" 1 John 4:8). We'll have fresh games, pizza, guest speaker, and the "Newlywed" game show where we get to showcase some of our parishes adult couples (some not-so-newlywed). Ends around 10:00. Youth need to turn in waivers by Wed. Feb. 2nd.

Summer Conferences – One Bread One Cup, Notre Dame Vision, MDI @ Marian

1) St. Meinrad's One Bread, One Cup focuses more on developing the youth's gifts to serve in the liturgy at Mass like being a Eucharistic minister, cantor, lector, etc. It helps the youth know that they ARE part of the Church and gives them ownership and purpose in the Body of Christ!

2) Notre Dame Vision is a leadership conference that helps develop the faith and gifts of high school youth to imitate the lives of Jesus Christ and the Saints in our current culture.

3) Marian's Missionary Disciples Institute at Marian Univ. (MDI) is a smaller, more immersive experience that prepares high school students to be young missionaries who serve their communities and impact the world through the local church.

**We plan to keep the cost of all 3 conferences at $100 for each youth (we have scholarship money, donations, and fundraising options to help subsidize). Please contact Bryan if interested or for information at 664-7992 or bmack@evdio.org.

Any questions/concerns about youth events please contact Bryan Macke at 664-7992 or bmack@evdio.org. Diocesan Event Waivers can be found in the back of each church or on our webpage at [www.smg youth.com](http://www.smg youth.com)
