Please keep in prayer those who are on our prayer chain and all members of our St. Joseph family.

We encourage our parishioners to patronize our sponsors. It is through their generosity that our weekly bulletin comes to you at no cost to the church. Our sponsor this week is:

HAUBSTADT DENTAL

Thank you to all the businesses who sponsor our bulletin.

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend at the Masses, I spoke about the start of the CPC in our Diocese. While some are able to pledge more, we ask everyone to do what they can. Most importantly, we are asking for all parishioners to return your pledge card whether or not you are making a pledge. Pledging is easy and payment of pledges may be made over a twelve-month period. The diocese provides all the material you need to mail in your payments or make your pledge online.

Both of our linked parishes of St. Bernard and St. Joseph benefit in many ways from services we receive from the Diocese. Every priest that has served in our parishes received their training with the assistance of funds from the Diocese. Currently, we have 11 seminarians discerning and preparing for Priesthood. As St. Joseph School began its Principal search, the Diocese, through the Catholic Schools office, provided valuable help and guidance. The Diocese also provided all Parishes a great deal of assistance while navigating and dealing with Covid challenges and guidelines, keeping everyone safe. We all benefit from the administrative help from the Diocese and their efforts continue to help make St. Bernard and St. Joseph parishes strong.

We have a history of doing our best for the CPC. This year I encourage you to do your best and certainly keep our Parishes and Diocese in prayer. Let's pull together and again reach our goal this year.

Please encourage all of our fellow parishioners to "get on board" and help us get this done. Doing so brings about a sense of achievement and prevents us from adding to our annual operating expense. The CPC is a parish fundraiser and every penny raised over our goal stays at our local Parishes respectively. Last year, meeting our goal made a big impact in helping to keep our annual budget low and on track. May God bless us in our generosity and help us grow as faith-filled stewards.

Sincerely,

Fr. Gary
